The Holy Spirit as “The Wind”

- Hebrew: ruach (Genesis 1:1)
- Greek: pneuma (John 3:5–7)
- Latin: spiro

Wind speaks of...

1. Energetic presence
2. Mysterious influence
3. New beginnings
4. Emerging life (creation)
5. Unrestrained independence

There are seasons in life when...

- The gale is forceful
- The breeze is smooth
- The wind is erratic
- The air is almost still

...but always, the Spirit hovers

Where are you relative to the wind?

“I must have the breath of Christ to live. Any day that God’s Spirit does not breathe in my life is a wasted day.” —Calvin Miller
