

Series: The Messengers
Message: You and Me
Date: January 3, 2010
Speaker: Steve Harling
Key Text: Romans 10:14–15

“I am a little pencil in the hand of a writing God who is sending a love letter to the world.”
—Mother Theresa

The message of the messengers was always about...

- the identity
- the mission
- and the reign of Christ
- who he is
- why he came
- what his kingdom is like

The gospel (good news)

God sent his son to rescue us from our sins, to reconcile us to God and to restore his kingdom on earth.

“The time has come,” he said. “The kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe the good news!”
Mark 1:15 (NIV)

“The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.”

Luke 4:18–19 (NIV)

I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes...
Romans 1:16a (NIV)

Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel!

1 Corinthians 9:16b (NIV)

And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation.

2 Corinthians 5:19b (NIV)

“Go into all the world and preach the good news to all creation.”
Mark 16:15 (NIV)

“Our job is not to manipulate or induce others to agree with us or to leave their religion and embrace Christianity. Our charge is to both proclaim and embody the gospel so that others can see, hear, and feel God’s love in tangible ways.”

—Richard Stearns, World Vision President

We embody and proclaim the good news of Christ’s identity, mission and kingdom:

- by how we live
- by what we say

New to Foothills?

Take a moment to chat with a welcome team member in the lobby before you leave today. They want to talk to you, answer your questions, and give you an idea of what our church is all about.

Got kids?

Children ages six weeks through 5th grade are invited to participate in age-appropriate ministries available during both Sunday services. InnerMission 6 for 6th graders and Warehouse for 7th–12th graders meet during the 10:45 service. Get directions or details at the Information Center in the lobby.
