

— TEACHING POINTS —

Some things just don't go together, like:

- light & darkness
- wickedness & righteousness
- worshipping God & worshipping idols
- Christ & the Devil

Unequally Yoked:

- What did it mean to the Corinthians?
- What should it mean to us?

Hetero + zygos = different + securely linked

Old Testament Context: Deuteronomy 22:10

In Corinth:

- People had been taught to believe Plato's idea that what you do with your body has nothing to do with your soul

Title: Unequally Yoked
Date: July 18, 2010
Speaker: Steve Harling
Key Text: 2 Corinthians 6:14-7:1

- It was considered normal to engage in prostitution in the temple of Apollo
- It was understood that Christian liberty means you are free to do as you please

Paul's point: don't get into intimate relationships that are likely to drag you down because...

- you have a different nature 6:14-15
- you belong to God 6:16
- your fellowship with God could be hindered 6:18
- you are called to be holy 7:1

*It's one thing to associate
It's another thing to assimilate*

So, when you're tempted to get into a potentially compromising relationship...

- Remember who you are
- Listen to the voice of your conscience
- Don't start what's hard to stop
- Make a clean break before it's too late

What if you are already in a relationship that's negatively influencing your relationship with God?
